

Vestergaard Frandsen Award 2011, National Academy of Vector Borne Diseases, Indian Council for Medical Research

Prof. S.H.P.P. Karunaratne, Dean, Faculty of Science received the above award from the Indian Cabinet Minister for Livestock and Fisheries on 15 Oct 2011 during an International Symposium held at the Regional Centre for Medical Research, Jabalpur, Madhya Pradesh, India. Prof. Karunaratne received this award for the outstanding research work he had carried out in the field of "Understanding the mechanisms of insecticide resistances, binomics and mosquito control." This award was open for Scientists in the field of vector borne diseases from SAARC countries.

